Collect for Sunday 22nd June

First Sunday after Trinity Sunday

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Reflection: Sunday 22nd June 2025

First Sunday after Trinity

1 Kings 19: 1-15

Have you ever had a huge triumph in your life and then straight after run into some problem that has 'floored' you completely. If you have then this story of Elijah probably resonates with you. Having won a mighty victory for God over the followers of Baal a Canaanite fertility God that had become popular in Israel, Elijah is immediately threatened with death by Jezebel the archetypal wicked queen and a power force behind her wicked and rather weak husband King Ahab. Victory forgotten, Elijah runs to the desert, where like Jonah he sits under a tree wishing to die, then he goes to sleep. God sends an angel to feed him, let him sleep, then feed him again. This shows God's care for Elijah's physical needs as well as his spiritual ones. This is a message to all Christian leaders and workers to look after themselves mentally and physically to avoid burnout. Only when Elijah was refreshed did he move on to Horeb, where God dealt with his spiritual problems. When God asks why Elijah is there, Elijah states that he is the only person left who works for God. This is not true there are 7,000 others in Israel (Verse 18), but God wants to show Elijah that although God can work in the miraculous represented in the Wind, Earthquake and Fire, God can also work in the quiet and the normal still small voice. It is in the normal and every day, that God more often speaks. Then God gently sets Elijah back to work again for him, renewed in body, mind and spirit. In Launde Minster community with all the demands and the lack of resources, it is easy for us to become like Elijah, burnt out and depressed. This story is given us to remind us that God cares for our whole life and being not just for what we can do for Him.

Bible Readings:

Sunday 22nd June

First Sunday after Trinity

Isaiah 65.1-9

1 I was ready to be sought out by those who did not ask, to be found by those who did not seek me. I said,
'Here I am, here I am',
to a nation that did not call on my name.
2 I held out my hands all day long to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good,
following their own devices;
3 a people who provoke me
to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and offering incense on bricks; 4 who sit inside tombs,
and spend the night in secret places; who eat swine's flesh,
with broth of abominable things in their vessels;
5 who say, 'Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you.' These are a smoke in my nostrils,
a fire that burns all day long.
6 See, it is written before me:
I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their laps
7 their iniquities and their ancestors' iniquities together, says the Lord ; because they offered incense on the mountains and reviled me on the hills, I will measure into their laps
full payment for their actions.
8 Thus says the Lord : As the wine is found in the cluster,
and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it', so I will do for my servants'
sake,
and not destroy them all.
9 I will bring forth descendants from Jacob, and from Judah inheritors of my mountains; my chosen shall inherit it,
and my servants shall settle there.

Galatians 3.23-end

23 Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed.

24 Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith.

25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian,

26 for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith.

27 As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ.

28 There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to the promise.

Luke 8.26-39

26 Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

27 As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me'-

29 for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.)

30 Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said,
'Legion'; for many demons had entered him.

31 They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

32 Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.

33 Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

34 When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

36 Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed.

37 Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned.

38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

Additional Collect for Sunday 22nd June First Sunday after Trinity

God of truth,
help us to keep your law of love
and to walk in ways of wisdom,
that we may find true life
in Jesus Christ your Son. Amen

The National Churches Survey

The National Churches Trust is carrying out a survey to help policymakers, the media, and the wider public better understand the challenges churches face and to highlight the vital work that churches, like yours, do.

This survey has the support of denominations, faith, and heritage groups across the country. Your response will provide essential evidence to build a clearer picture – to tell a stronger, more informed story about your church, and others like it, so that we can address some of the biggest challenges facing churches and help ensure their future.

Please complete The National Churches Survey. The more churches that take part, the more impactful it will be. The survey is live until 30 June.

Take part at nationalchurchestrust.org/survey

NEW: Fire Service Chaplains

Due to personnel moving on and or retiring, there is a need for additional Fire Service Chaplains.

There are a number of Fire Stations to place chaplains, clergy and/or lay people.

If this is an area where you feel that God may be calling you to be a part of, then please contact Revd John

Bird: John.fire.chaplaincy@outlook.com

Energy Footprint Tool Reminder

Has your church filled in the Energy Footprint Tool (EFT) yet?

The Energy Footprint Tool (EFT) is an easy-to-use online tool that will reveal your church's carbon footprint, based on the energy you use to heat and light your buildings. All the information you need to fill in the EFT can be found on your church energy bills and should take less than an hour to complete.

Across the Church of England, Leicester is one of 12 dioceses which have achieved over 30% so far – we'd love as many churches as possible to take part.

The deadline for completion is 30 June 2025.

Climate Change & Net Carbon Zero – 1 Oct

RECOGNISE

Monday 7 to Sunday 13 July

RECOGNISE is a national week of recognition for everyone involved in ministry with children, young people, and their families (CYPF).

Sunday 13 July is a day for churches nationwide to celebrate and thank those involved in this vital ministry.

Within your normal church service on Sunday 13 July, give 10 minutes to 'recognise' those involved with CYPF Ministry in your church. Download service ideas and a blessing: <https://d3hgriq6yacptf.cloudfront.net/5f3ffd8a9f6aa/content/pages/documents/recognise.pdf>

Journeying with the Psalms through Life's Ups and Downs

St Dionysius traditionally makes much of their choir at services such as Nine Lessons & Carols, and their Easter Vigil, but saw an opportunity to create an event for the summer.

"I have often been struck by the honesty of the psalms and how they bring voice to both the ups and downs of life," explains Revd Phil. "The idea developed for a service that journeys through the different forms of psalms. I thought it could be a powerful act of gathered worship and provide an opportunity for the special involvement of the choir." Revd Phil worked with Pam Abbott, the choir coordinator and Jane Holyland, one of their organists, to set out a journey through the psalms that marks different tones; those that cry out in lament, those that are reflective, and those that are joyous – including an acclamation of God as creator of the world.

"Although the psalms are ancient texts, and the specific contexts in which they were written vary from our own contexts, there is nevertheless a commonality that resonates," says Revd Phil. "The sense of crying out to God in the midst of personal struggles and at the injustices in the world around is relevant today, and indeed throughout history. Similarly, the more joyous notes of thanksgiving and exultation are relatable even if the specific context is different."

The team are hopeful that through the readings, liturgy, music and silence there will be space for people to come to God with whatever is going on in their lives and the wider world.

The inaugural Festival of Psalms is on Sunday 22nd June 6-7.30pm. All are welcome
