Collect for Sunday 17th August Nineth Sunday after Trinity Sunday

Almighty God,
who sent your Holy Spirit
to be the life and light of your Church:
open our hearts to the riches of your grace,
that we may bring forth the fruit of the Spirit
in love and joy and peace;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Reflection: Sunday 17th August 2025 Nineth Sunday after Trinity

We sometimes think of faith as being a quiet activity, but in this week's passage from Hebrews faith looks far more active. Walking into the Red Sea when the water hasn't yet parted takes courage!

We hear of men and women who risked, endured, fought, wandered, suffered and died because of their faith in God's promises, even when they didn't live to see the outcome.

Their stories are inspiring, but they also challenge us: can we hold on to faith as they did, through thick and thin? Can we still follow Jesus in hard times?

These stories also remind us that we are not the first to walk this road. Their faith shows that God is faithful, even when times are hard. Not only that, they're a cheering crowd, urging us to hold the faith until we too reach our finishing line.

Then the writer turns to Jesus; for his audience, a man of their times. Jesus, the man who ran ahead and endured the cross, not because it was easy but because of the joy beyond it. His race was full of shame, suffering, and rejection and yet he kept running. Why? Because Jesus knew the prize - his place with the Father and the Holy Spirit in the kingdom of God.

This knowledge changes how we face our own race. Our Christian life isn't just about surviving, it's about running with a purpose, casting off the unholy habits that slow us down, and keeping our eyes fixed on Christ.

When times are hard, let this passage remind us: We're not alone. We're not forgotten. And we're not running in vain. There's a crowd cheering us on and our Saviour is waiting at the line.

So let's fix our eyes, not on our failures, not on our pain, not on the world, but on Jesus.

And keep running!

Hilary Painter

Bible Readings:

Sunday 17th August

Nineth Sunday after Trinity

Jeremiah 23.23-29

23 Am I a God near by, says the Lord, and not a God far off?

24 Who can hide in secret places so that I cannot see them? says the Lord. Do I not fill heaven and earth? says the Lord.

25 I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!'

26 How long? Will the hearts of the prophets ever turn back-those who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart?

27 They plan to make my people forget my name by their dreams that they tell one another, just as their ancestors forgot my name for Baal.

28 Let the prophet who has a dream tell the dream, but let the one who has my word speak my word faithfully. What has straw in common with wheat? says the Lord.

29 Is not my word like fire, says the Lord, and like a hammer that breaks a rock in pieces?

Hebrews 11.29-12.2

29 By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days.

31 By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace.

32 And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets-

33 who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions,

34 quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight.

35 Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection.

36 Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented-

38 of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground.

39 Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised,

40 since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect.

12 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us,

2 looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

Luke 12.49-56

49 'I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

50 I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed!

51 Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division!

52 From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three;

53 they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.'

54 He also said to the crowds, 'When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, "It is going to rain"; and so it happens.

55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, "There will be scorching heat"; and it happens.

56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Gracious Father,
revive your Church in our day,
and make her holy, strong and faithful,
for your glory's sake
in Jesus Christ our Lord.

NEW: A Call to Prayer for Upcoming Tanzania Trip

The purpose of life is found in little moments and opportunities given to us by God, and what greater joy can we have than when the opportunity is about advancing his Kingdom?

This September, a team from the Diocese of Leicester, led by Revd Dave Rollett, will be travelling to Tanzania to visit our link partner dioceses of Kilimanjaro and Kiteto.

They will be heading out for approximately two weeks on Thursday 4 September, to accomplish a mission in faith, friendships and purpose, and discover the daily lives of people living on the other side of the world.

This trip gives an opportunity to build relationships across linked dioceses and local communities – sit beside fellow believers, worship in their language, walk their roads, and share their tables.

In answering the call to share the good news, let us pray for good team dynamics as they learn to serve and listen well together, for their safety and protection in travel specifically in unfamiliar environments, and for good health, energy and wisdom in the face of the unexpected.

Revd Richard Trethewey Appointed Archdeacon of Leicester

We are pleased to announce the appointment of The Revd Richard Trethewey, currently Rector in the Benefice of Glenfield and Newtown Linford, as Archdeacon of Leicester.

Richard is well known by many in the diocese for his work as Assistant Archdeacon and Chair of the Diocesan Advisory Committee.

Commenting on the appointment, Bishop Martyn said: “I am particularly pleased that Richard has agreed to become the next Archdeacon of Leicester. His appointment provides continuity at a time of considerable change in the diocese, and I know that he will bring real wisdom and energy to the work of supporting parishes through these changes. Richard has rich parish experience himself, both in this diocese as well as Birmingham and Lichfield. I am looking forward to working with him in this new role.” Reflecting on his new role, Richard said: “It is nearly 10 years since I was interviewed to take up a post in the Diocese of Leicester, and in that time a lot has changed for me personally and in the diocese. Over those years I have been privileged to have been able to contribute to the life and mission of the diocese, primarily of course in my parishes of Glenfield and Newtown Linford, then as Area Dean, Chair of the DAC and most recently Assistant Archdeacon.

“I am aware that I have a lot to learn as I move from one side of the diocese to the other, but I am looking forward to stepping up to the responsibility and stepping across to the Archdeaconry of Leicester to continue to serve the churches and people of this county and city as we pursue our vision of the Kingdom of God.”

From Monday 27 October, Richard will be contactable on Richard.Trethewey@LeicesterCofE.org or via the Archdeacons’ office number.

St Wistan Said ‘Yes’ – Who Else Might God Be Calling? “What makes a saint? Not halos, not headlines, but hands.”

In a new video Bishop Saju reflects on the life and death of St Wistan, asking us to consider how God might be calling us to serve Him. “I believe God is still calling young and old, bold and quiet, rich and poor, from every background,” says Saju, “Not perfect people, mind you, just willing ones. If something stirs within you don’t brush it off. Talk to someone.”

If you would like to join Bishop Saju and our Diocesan Director of Ordinands Revd Sue Willetts for an informal vocations conversation on Saturday 11 October, 9.30-11am at Bishop’s Lodge, please RSVP

Update to National Safeguarding Resources

The following documents have now been officially withdrawn from the Church of England website, as they have been superseded by updated guidance and codes of practice:

- Parish Safeguarding Handbook
- Protecting All God’s Children
- Promoting a Safe Church (2006)

These documents are no longer in use, so please ensure that any printed copies are removed and securely disposed of.

All current safeguarding guidance is now available in the Church of England’s Safeguarding e-manual which should be your first point of reference for policy and practice. Read more:

Generosity Week is a celebration of God’s generosity that is lived out in our churches and parishes. It gives us an opportunity to engage with and support the wider community as we celebrate the generosity found. This isn’t a celebration of ‘our’ generosity but God’s, which is found within the church and outside it.

To start planning and promoting Generosity Week, take these three steps:

1. Pick a week – the national week runs from Sunday 28 September to Sunday 5 October but if another time works better for you, do it then.
2. Choose what to do – think what your church needs and look through the resources available (see below).
3. Plan your Sundays – two Sundays works well as it gives you one chance to explore gratitude and one to consider generosity. To get you started, there are service outlines, sermon starters and prayers – all generosity themed.

If you would like to find out more or would like support in planning a Generosity Week in your church, contact our Parish Giving Officer at Laura.Taylor@LeicesterCofE.org or 07897003488. Find resources and more information: <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/building-generous-church/generosity-resources/generosity-week/generosity-week-resources-churches>

Video Explores Focal Ministry

Focal Ministry is emerging in the diocese as a way to recognise those who are called to love and serve their local church and community

Focal ministers are people who are:

- Rooted, embedded in their communities.
- Visible, seen as the face of the local church.
- Fruitful, enable others to grow in faith.

In this new video, Liz Rawlings speaks to Associate Minister, Hilary Painter, who explains her sense of calling to Focal Ministry.

Some people who serve as Focal Ministers will, like Hilary, be existing licensed Associate Ministers; but others may not and the diocese is committed to enabling them to be recognised, authorised and supported as spiritual leaders in their parishes.

If you would like more information on Focal Ministry, visit our website: <https://www.leicester.anglican.org/info-for-leaders/vocations/focal-ministry/> or contact Liz.Rawlings@LeicesterCofE.org

#All Creatures Great and Small

You might remember the national church's previous summer campaigns designed to showcase our local churches, including 'church door challenge' and 'stained glass summer'.

This year is on the theme of 'All Creatures Great and Small' and we'd love to see your animals in churches, or within your church grounds.

Whether it's a snapshot of local wildlife, pets who have paid your church a visit, or depictions of animals in stained glass windows, paintings and carvings, why not get creative and share your photos and videos on social media from now until 31 August 2025.

Tag them #GreatAndSmall – a selection will be shared every week on the Church of England's social media channels. See more information and ideas:

Eco Church Conversations

Saturday 6 September, 9.30am-12.30pm – All Saints with Holy Trinity Church, Loughborough

Creationtide is a season when the Church focuses on caring for God's Creation (1 September to 4 October).

This service at the start of Creationtide will be a chance to lament together for the environmental problems we see, and to walk forward in hope as we are inspired by positive actions taking place around the Diocese.

There will be time to consider the Eco Church Award and next steps for your own church communities. We would love you to participate with prayer and action this Creationtide.
