Collect for Sunday 10th August

Eighth Sunday after Trinity Sunday

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies
in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments;
that through your most mighty protection, both here
and ever,
we may be preserved in body and soul;
through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection: Sunday 10th August 2025

Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Genesis 15: 1-6

"We are a covenant people" is a claim made by many protestant churches and following St. Paul's letter to the Galatians, we can be sure that it is to the covenant here in Genesis that they refer. Abram is met by God, and assured of divine favour, but Abram argues that this favour can only be temporary, as he has no heir to succeed him, so his wealth and status transfers to a foreigner on his death, and not to his son. God then promises him not only a son, but that his ancestors through that son would be as numerous as the stars in the sky. Then comes one of the most cited verses in the bible, verse 6, that Abram believed God, and God credited this as righteousness. From this verse Paul was able to point to salvation coming through faith, rather than adherence to law or good works. As Abram through faith became righteous Abraham, so we through faith in the redemptive work of Jesus on the cross also become heirs to God's promise to Abram. Thus says St. Paul we are heirs of the covenant and thus a covenant people.

Bible Readings:

Sunday 10th August

Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Genesis 15.1-6

1 After these things the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision, 'Do not be afraid, Abram, I am your shield; your reward shall be very great.'

2 But Abram said, 'O Lord God, what will you give me, for I continue childless, and the heir of my house is Eliezer of Damascus?'

3 And Abram said, 'You have given me no offspring, and so a slave born in my house is to be my heir.'

4 But the word of the Lord came to him, 'This man shall not be your heir; no one but your very own issue shall be your heir.'

5 He brought him outside and said, 'Look towards heaven and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' Then he said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.'

6 And he believed the Lord ; and the Lord reckoned it to him as righteousness.

Hebrews 11.1-3, 8-16

1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.

2 Indeed, by faith our ancestors received approval.

3 By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was made from things that are not visible.

8 By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise.

10 For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God.

11 By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old-and Sarah herself was barren-because he considered him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, 'as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.'

13 All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, 14 for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

15 If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return.

16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Luke 12.32-40

32 'Do not be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell your possessions, and give alms. Make purses for yourselves that do not wear out, an unfailing treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near and no moth destroys.

34 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

35 'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit;

36 be like those who are waiting for their master to return from the wedding banquet, so that they may open the door for him as soon as he comes and knocks.

37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master finds alert when he comes; truly I tell you, he will fasten his belt and have them sit down to eat, and he will come and serve them.

38 If he comes during the middle of the night, or near dawn, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

39 'But know this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

40 You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an unexpected hour.'

Additional Collect for Sunday 10th August Eighth Sunday after Trinity

Lord God,
your Son left the riches of heaven and became poor for our sake:
when we prosper save us from pride,
when we are needy save us from despair,
that we may trust in you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

NEW: Revd Richard Trethewey Appointed Archdeacon of Leicester

We are pleased to announce the appointment of The Revd Richard Trethewey, currently Rector in the Benefice of Glenfield and Newtown Linford, as Archdeacon of Leicester.

Richard is well known by many in the diocese for his work as Assistant Archdeacon and Chair of the Diocesan Advisory Committee.

Commenting on the appointment, Bishop Martyn said: "I am particularly pleased that Richard has agreed to become the next Archdeacon of Leicester. His appointment provides continuity at a time of considerable change in the diocese, and I know that he will bring real wisdom and energy to the work of supporting parishes through these changes. Richard has rich parish experience himself, both in this diocese as well as Birmingham and Lichfield. I am looking forward to working with him in this new role.” Reflecting on his new role, Richard said: “It is nearly 10 years since I was interviewed to take up a post in the Diocese of Leicester, and in that time a lot has changed for me personally and in the diocese. Over those years I have been privileged to have been able to contribute to the life and mission of the diocese, primarily of course in my parishes of Glenfield and Newtown Linford, then as Area Dean, Chair of the DAC and most recently Assistant Archdeacon.

“I am aware that I have a lot to learn as I move from one side of the diocese to the other, but I am looking forward to stepping up to the responsibility and stepping across to the Archdeaconry of Leicester to continue to serve the churches and people of this county and city as we pursue our vision of the Kingdom of God.”

From Monday 27 October, Richard will be contactable on Richard.Trethewey@LeicesterCofE.org or via the Archdeacons’ office number.

NEW: St Wistan Said ‘Yes’ – Who Else Might God Be Calling?

“What makes a saint? Not halos, not headlines, but hands.”

In a new video Bishop Saju reflects on the life and death of St Wistan, asking us to consider how God might be calling us to serve Him.

“I believe God is still calling young and old, bold and quiet, rich and poor, from every background,” says Saju, “Not perfect people, mind you, just willing ones. If something stirs within you don’t brush it off. Talk to someone.”

If you would like to join Bishop Saju and our Diocesan Director of Ordinands Revd Sue Willetts for an informal vocations conversation on Saturday 11 October, 9.30-11am at Bishop’s Lodge, please RSVP

NEW: Introducing the Revd Phil Bryson, Diocesan Disability Adviser

As part of our commitment as a diocese to prioritise the inclusion and flourishing of all God’s people in our worshipping communities, the Revd Phil Bryson has taken up the position of Diocesan Disability Adviser.

The purpose of this role is to work collaboratively with others in the diocese to enable churches to be welcoming places for people with disabilities and neurodivergence, and their households, and to support their growth into ministry and leadership.

Revd Phil is visually impaired, and has been since the age of 11. Talking about his experiences and calling to the role, he said: “My experience as a disabled (or as I like to say ‘differently abled’) person, and as a priest, has given me a particular passion for worship and ministry being accessible to all people, and the value of including differently abled people... Through the role of Diocesan Disability Adviser, I hope that churches can be enabled to be more aware and more accessible of differently abled people and their households both to participate in worship and church life and also to developing their own vocation.”

Phil is currently assembling a Disability Advisory Group, which he will chair. This group will have representation of a broader range of disabilities and neurodivergence, bringing together a wide range of knowledge and experience to develop advice and strategy. If you would like to be considered for the Group, please get in contact with Phil. Phil can be contacted about this role on phil@harborough-anglican.org.uk

NEW: Generosity Week is a celebration of God's generosity that is lived out in our churches and parishes. It gives us an opportunity to engage with and support the wider community as we celebrate the generosity found. This isn't a celebration of 'our' generosity but God's, which is found within the church and outside it.

To start planning and promoting Generosity Week, take these three steps:

1. Pick a week – the national week runs from Sunday 28 September to Sunday 5 October but if another time works better for you, do it then.
2. Choose what to do – think what your church needs and look through the resources available (see below).
3. Plan your Sundays – two Sundays works well as it gives you one chance to explore gratitude and one to consider generosity. To get you started, there are service outlines, sermon starters and prayers – all generosity themed.

If you would like to find out more or would like support in planning a Generosity Week in your church, contact our Parish Giving Officer at Laura.Taylor@LeicesterCofE.org or 07897003488. Find resources and more information: <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/building-generous-church/generosity-resources/generosity-week/generosity-week-resources-churches>

South Asian Heritage Month - A Time for Reflection and Action

The theme for this year's South Asian Heritage Month, which runs from 18th July to 17th August is 'Roots to Routes'.

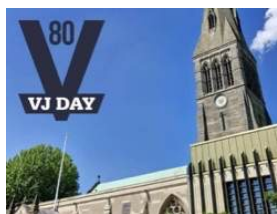

With the celebration of South Asian Heritage Month, the next few weeks are an opportunity for the country and our local churches in the diocese to share in unique traditions and cultures that may differ from their own. See a list of ways you could experience and reflect on South Asian culture this month:

While the South Asian population makes up the majority in certain parts of Leicestershire, our local churches may not be as diverse. Therefore, this month gives us a chance to further understand the South Asian experience, how it is lived generally, but also specifically in relation to our faith. Heritage is a divine blessing and a reminder of the importance of actively cherishing our differences as reflections of God's kingdom.

Michael Ravuri, Intercultural Ministry Enabler, has put together an important and powerful collection of resources to celebrate South Asian Heritage and inform our church communities.

Cathedral Civic Service to Mark the 80th Anniversary of VJ Day

A special reflective service will take place at Leicester Cathedral at 5.30pm on Thursday 14th August to mark the 80th anniversary of VJ (Victory over Japan) and the end of the Second World War

Held on the eve of the anniversary, the service will offer space for remembrance and reflection on the end of the Second World War, which came just days after the devastating atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Members of the public are invited to attend the service, which invites people to pause and consider the ongoing instability of the world, the continued proliferation of nuclear weapons, and the deep and enduring need for peace.

Lord-Lieutenant of Leicestershire, Mike Kapur OBE CstJ, said: "Marking the 80th anniversary of VJ Day gives us an opportunity to reflect not only on the end of one of the darkest chapters in our history, but also on the sacrifices made by so many, including those from Leicester and Leicestershire. It is vital that we remember the past in order to build a more peaceful future."

The service will include prayers, readings and moments of silence, offering a quiet and powerful tribute to those affected by the war and its aftermath.

Video Explores Focal Ministry

Focal Ministry
rooted, visible, fruitful

Focal Ministry is emerging in the diocese as a way to recognise those who are called to love and serve their local church and community

Focal ministers are people who are:

- Rooted, embedded in their communities.
- Visible, seen as the face of the local church.
- Fruitful, enable others to grow in faith.

In this new video, Liz Rawlings speaks to Associate Minister, Hilary Painter, who explains her sense of calling to Focal Ministry.

Some people who serve as Focal Ministers will, like Hilary, be existing licensed Associate Ministers; but others may not and the diocese is committed to enabling them to be recognised, authorised and supported as spiritual leaders in their parishes.

If you would like more information on Focal Ministry, visit our website: <https://www.leicester.anglican.org/info-for-leaders/vocations/focal-ministry/> or contact Liz.Rawlings@LeicesterCofE.org

Growing Disciples Through the Leicester Anglican Cursillo Community

Cursillo offers committed Christians a community of discipleship in which they are supported and encouraged as they grow in faith and seek to establish a role in the work of building God's kingdom.

Here in the diocese, we have a local group – the Leicester Anglican Cursillo (LAC) – with a collective of more than 300 people who have completed a 'Cursillo weekend' and joined the fellowship.

The lay-led organisation has hosted more than 50 weekend courses for Christian prayer, study and action at Launde Abbey since 1994, providing, what is for many, a life changing experience through which God inspires, renews, and challenges.

Each weekend is undergirded with prayer, and led by different Lay Rectors.

If you are a practicing Christian, and a member of a church, worshipping community, or Leicester Cathedral in the Diocese of Leicester, then you may be interested in attending a LAC course. Find out more:

#All Creatures Great and Small

You might remember the national church's previous summer campaigns designed to showcase our local churches, including 'church door challenge' and 'stained glass summer'.

This year is on the theme of 'All Creatures Great and Small' and we'd love to see your animals in churches, or within your church grounds.

Whether it's a snapshot of local wildlife, pets who have paid your church a visit, or depictions of animals in stained glass windows, paintings and carvings, why not get creative and share your photos and videos on social media from now until 31 August 2025.

Tag them #GreatAndSmall – a selection will be shared every week on the Church of England's social media channels. See more information and ideas:

Stomp Around Leicester

Forty gentle giants have journeyed into Leicester's streets, parks and open spaces, forming a jumbo trail across the city until Sunday 21 September.

The Cathedral is home to a mini-herd of baby elephant sculptures, adopted and decorated by local schools and community groups.

When the trail ends, the baby elephants will stomp back to join their owners, while the giant elephant sculptures will be auctioned on Wednesday 8 October to raise money for the hospice, which helps terminally ill local people and their families at the most difficult times of their lives.
