Collect for Sunday 7th September Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reflection: Sunday 7th September 2025 Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, Harvest Thanksgiving

If we are planning to do something like buying a house or applying for a job or emigrating to a different country, we have to think very carefully. Our readings today are telling us that our religion compels us to think just as carefully about all our decisions about the way we live to be faithful to our Lord.

Moses at the end of his life summoned the people and issued a stern challenge. 'God has rescued you from slavery and led you to a new home which you are about to enter. You have a choice: obey God and prosper or disobey the Lord and make a mess of things. Choose life that you and yours may live.'

Paul gives a similar sort of ultimatum to Philemon, one of his friends in Colossae: do the Christian thing and take back Onesimus your slave who has run away, or risk losing a brother who is truly a useful servant. The decision may be hard but it will lead to happiness for all.
The challenges that Jesus makes are even more stark:
unless you hate your parents, family, and even yourself, you cannot be my disciple! Unless you are prepared to be crucified, you are not following me! He set out to shock people into remembering his words and to think hard about their real meaning. In that way his words became life-transforming, influencing peoples' decisions.
The issue in each of these passages is that people can be led to find a full and fruitful life if they make the right decisions – the Israelites under Moses, Philemon and his family, and everyone called to be a disciple of Jesus. All are called to think very carefully about the important decisions in their lives.

For right decisions lead to fulfilment in our lives of faith, and ultimately to the management of the creation entrusted to us. At this Harvest time, let us pray for all making decisions for the welfare of the world.

Rev'd Philip Norwood

Bible Readings:

Sunday 7th September 2025

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

Deuteronomy 30.15-end

15 See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity.

16 If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess.

17 But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them,

18 I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live,

20 loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

Philemon 1-21

1 Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, To Philemon our dear friend and co-worker,

2 to Apphia our sister, to Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in your house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 When I remember you in my prayers, I always thank my God

5 because I hear of your love for all the saints and your faith towards the Lord Jesus.

6 I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective when you perceive all the good that we may do for Christ.

7 I have indeed received much joy and encouragement from your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, my brother.

8 For this reason, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do your duty,

9 yet I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love-and I, Paul, do this as an old man, and now also as a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

10 I am appealing to you for my child, Onesimus, whose father I have become during my imprisonment.

11 Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful both to you and to me.

12 I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you.

13 I wanted to keep him with me, so that he might be of service to me in your place during my imprisonment for the gospel;

14 but I preferred to do nothing without your consent, in order that your good deed might be voluntary and not something forced.

15 Perhaps this is the reason he was separated from you for a while, so that you might have him back for ever,

16 no longer as a slave but as more than a slave, a beloved brother-especially to me but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 So if you consider me your partner, welcome him as you would welcome me.

18 If he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account.

19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I will repay it. I say nothing about your owing me even your own self.

20 Yes, brother, let me have this benefit from you in the Lord! Refresh my heart in Christ.

21 Confident of your obedience, I am writing to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say.

Luke 14.25-33

25 Now large crowds were travelling with him; and he turned and said to them,

26 'Whoever comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, yes, and even life itself, cannot be my disciple.

27 Whoever does not carry the cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and estimate the cost, to see whether he has enough to complete it?

29 Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it will begin to ridicule him,

30 saying, "This fellow began to build and was not able to finish."

31 Or what king, going out to wage war against another king, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to oppose the one who comes against him with twenty thousand?

32 If he cannot, then, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks for the terms of peace.

33 So therefore, none of you can become my disciple if you do not give up all your possessions.

Additional Collect for Sunday 7th September Twelfth Sunday after Trinity

God of constant mercy, who sent your Son to save us:
remind us of your goodness,
increase your grace within us,
that our thankfulness may grow,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Ride + Stride

It's the time of year when I encourage friends to sponsor me for the Ride + Stride, raising money for the LeicesterShire Historic Churches Trust to enable them to make grants for church and chapel repairs within the city and county. This year, however, I can't stride, only hobble, as I am waiting for a hip replacement. I will be visiting churches on 13 September but only by car! However the need for funds is no less than before so please support me on my fundraising page: https://www.goodhub.com/go/leicestershire-historic-churches-trust-200868?fbclid=IwY2xjawMZc_hleHRuA2FlbQlxMAABHrNRjhSkY2IUSVqo0OXoRW7bcu7o0vJmw5yYCw-YgwWZzu-9kegOhKtXbkzS_aem_fk4WS6XbpqEs1HO63VLSXg

Creationtide – Peace with creation

1st September to 4th October

Creationtide, or the Season of Creation, is dedicated to God as Creator and Sustainer of Life.

It is a month of unity, when Christians around the world celebrate the beauty and wonder of creation and commit to caring for our common home.

This year, we are called to be peacemakers with creation, all people and God, based on Isaiah 32:14-18.

The prophet Isaiah pictured the desolated Creation without peace because of the lack of justice and the broken relationship between people and God.

This description of devastated cities and wastelands reveals how human destructive behaviours have a negative impact on the Earth.

Our hope: Creation will find peace when justice is restored.

There is still hope and the expectation for a peaceful Earth. To hope does not mean to stand still and quiet, but to act, pray, change, and reconcile with Creation and the Creator in unity, repentance and solidarity.

Care for God's creation is part of our everyday faith as Christians. We honour God when we care for his creation.

We show love to our neighbours, near and far, when we care about the environments in which they live. And we work for justice when we seek to tackle climate change and halt the loss of nature.

During Creationtide, that call feels all the more significant and is a great time to start, or expand upon our eco-conscious endeavours.

East & Southeast Asian Heritage Month

September is East & Southeast Asian (ESEA) Heritage Month. During the month we are called to consider the theme 'Reframing Resilience'.

This week, Jessie Tang, our Intercultural Ministry Director, reflects on her familial journey and celebrates the stories of many others who've migrated into our cities and worshipping communities.

See also a video featuring Jessie's story and some words from Revd Pak Kwong Yip of Leicester Chinese Christian Church.

Growing Deeper in Faith and Fellowship

As the new school year begins, so too does the next chapter of our diocesan Journey in Faith (JiF) course.

If you are seeking to grow in your knowledge of the Christian Faith, deepen your relationship with God and explore how to live out your faith in your whole life, the JiF is a great place to start.

Members of the JiF group in East Gosgote recently gathered for their final session, sharing a meal together and reflecting on their journeys with course leader, Revd Ros Harper.

Talking about their year and sharing something of the group's growth and depth of discipleship, Revd Ros said: "It has been a real joy and a privilege to be a tutor on the course this year. I was keen to be involved as the JiF course was the start of my own vocational journey.

"The East Gosgote JiF were a lively and friendly group who quickly formed a strong sense of community. It has been wonderful to see how they supported and encouraged each other on their journey and they have made friendships which will last well beyond their year together... "It has been a real privilege to walk alongside them... to see their faith grow and deepen as they begin to explore where God might be calling them."

Journey in Faith is a course open to anyone wanting to take the next step in their discipleship.

The course, which is delivered over three terms, starts this month. Find out more:

Generosity Week generosity that is lived out in our churches and parishes. It gives us an opportunity to engage with and support the wider community as we celebrate the generosity found. This isn't a celebration of 'our' generosity but God's, which is found within the church and outside it.

To start planning and promoting Generosity Week, take these three steps:

1. Pick a week – the national week runs from Sunday 28 September to Sunday 5 October but if another time works better for you, do it then.

2. Choose what to do – think what your church needs and look through the resources available (see below).

3. Plan your Sundays – two Sundays works well as it gives you one chance to explore gratitude and one to consider generosity. To get you started, there are service outlines, sermon starters and prayers – all generosity themed.

If you would like to find out more or would like support in planning a Generosity Week in your church, contact our Parish Giving Officer at Laura.Taylor@LeicesterCofE.org or 07897003488. Find resources and more information: <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/building-generous-church/generosity-resources/generosity-week/generosity-week-resources-churches>

Revd Chris Webb

After 11 brilliant years at Launde Abbey, some of them also so as Diocesan Spiritual Advisor, the Revd Chris Webb (Deputy Warden) will be leaving in mid-September to be Priest-in-Charge of St Cuthbert's Church, Blyth, in the Diocese of Newcastle, and to be nearer to his family in the north.

Revd Alison Myers, Warden of the Abbey, writes: "He, and his ministry here, have been loved by many and we are very sad to see him go. I have valued, personally, his companionship and his deep prayerfulness as we have led the Abbey together over the last four years. We know that he will be equally loved and valued in his new post, and he and Sally have our support and prayers for the transition."

There will be an informal opportunity to pop-in to the Abbey to say farewell to Chris between 2pm and 5pm on Thursday 18 September.

Please let the Abbey know via info@launde.org.uk if you intend to drop by that afternoon, and you are welcome to stay to Evening Prayer at 5pm.

If you would like to contribute to a thank you gift for Chris then please contact accounts@launde.org.uk for details of how to do so.
